1890

The Ontario Hockey Association (OHA) was founded on November 27, 1890 and is the governing body for the majority of Junior and Senior hockey in the Province of Ontario. The OHA is a Member Partner of the Ontario Hockey Federation which is one of thirteen Provincial and Regional Branches of Hockey Canada.

It is comprised of three Junior hockey leagues and two Senior hockey leagues: Junior A – Ontario Junior Hockey League; Junior B – Greater Ontario Junior Hockey League; Junior C – Provincial Junior Hockey League, Senior – Allan Cup Hockey (AAA) and Ontario Elite Hockey League (AA). For the 2023-24 season, these five leagues encompass 125 teams.

OHA MEMORIAL CUP

The OHA decided in its December 1918 meeting to establish a memorial to commemorate the fallen players. The result was the OHA Memorial Cup, which would be for Canada-wide competition among junior teams. The first championship was won by the University of Toronto Schools in 1919.

FOOTPRINT

The current Ontario Hockey Association offers room for improvement, and negatively impacts the province / players.

ACH is four teams based around Hamilton-GTA area.

OJHL has focus within the GTA. Opportunity exists to expand into Southwestern Ontario.

GOJHL clusters within Southwestern Ontario. Opportunity exists to expand North.

PJHL has strong distribution across Southern Ontario with greater density within Southwestern Ontario.

OEHL is in South-Western Ontario/Grey Bruce area.
